

PPE and Cleaning Supply List

Department of Education and Smart Beginnings have compiled lists of companies that will sell PPE and supplies to child care providers. Be aware that some companies require minimum orders, offer products with delays in shipping, offer consortium prices for bulk orders while taking a percentage of the costs, etc.

This list was compiled by Shawn Talmage in the Office of the Secretary of Public Safety and Homeland Security.

1. eVA: <https://eva.virginia.gov/eva-emergency-notices.html> Click on COVID-19 Emergency Vendor List. Several hundred vendors are providing COVID-19 related supplies including PPE, face coverings, and sanitizer.
2. Amazon COVID-19 Supplies Hub: In order to purchase from the Amazon COVID-19 Supplies Hub, a business must first sign up on Amazon Business. The link to sign up can be accessed using this url: <https://business.amazon.com/en/work-with-us/healthcare/covid-19-supplies>
3. McClung Companies: <https://www.mcclungcompanies.com/vma> This is a Virginia initiative which is currently working on the 'shopping cart' functionality of the site to permit healthcare and government entities to purchase
4. PPE Consortium: www.ppeconsortium.com - PPE Consortium helps medical practices, dental practices, and other organizations (i.e., nursing homes, schools, clinics, restaurants, childcare providers) smartly save money on PPE purchases by aggregating their PPE requirements to negotiate competitive discounts with our 40+ suppliers-partners.
5. Project n95: If the entity is part of the private sector, please provide them with this website if they are looking for vendors of PPE, <https://www.projectn95.org/>.
6. Virginia Correctional Enterprises: Depending on your facility status, government agencies and non-profit organizations may purchase items from the Virginia Correctional Enterprises: <https://www.govce.net/>. They are producing facial coverings.

These resources were just shared from both VECF and colleagues at the City of Richmond for accessing PPE in bulk.

1. Vertical PPE (<https://verticalppe.com/>)
2. FEMA distribution of supplies through VOAD: "If you are interested in getting either the pallets or drums, please contact Allyson Kuriger as soon as possible. Allyson is the Vice President of Virginia VOAD and is coordinating the delivery of these donations."
